America Calls Upon Its Agents Who Formed the Mecca Defense Alliance to Confront Iran on Its Behalf

On 9 September, US Congressman Joe Wilson posted on his Twitter account regarding the Mecca Defense Alliance, stating, “The Mecca Defense Alliance says an attack on one is an attack on all — now is the time for Türkiye, Pakistan and Saudi Arabia to destroy the Houthis. Free Yemen.” On 8 September 2026, Pakistani Defense Minister Khawaja Asif stated that Houthi attacks on Saudi Arabia could trigger the Mecca Defense Alliance, as the agreement deems an armed attack on a member state to be an attack on all members. This statement followed the Houthis claiming responsibility for new attacks on Saudi Arabia.

After failing to subjugate Iran—despite employing various lethal weapons and striking vital military, civilian, and infrastructure facilities, including the heavy bombardment of the Kharg oil island—and failing to force Iran to explicitly surrender or adhere to agreements signed between the two parties through the mediation of “false witnesses” among Pakistani military and political leaders (foremost among them Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif and Army Chief Asim Munir—whom Trump described as “two truly exceptional men,” with Asim Munir being his “favorite Field Marshal”—the US resorted to using its Ruwaibadah (insignificant) agents in the region to carry out dirty work against Iran on its behalf. It instructed its agents and followers in the region to form a tripartite military alliance comprising Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, and Turkey. Trump expressed great satisfaction with the formation of this alliance, viewing it as a lifeline for himself and a big stick to wield against Iran. It has become evident to everyone—from the general public to military and political observers worldwide, and indeed to the United States itself—that America is incapable of decisively winning the battles and military adventures it undertakes globally, particularly those against Islamic nations. Despite possessing an arsenal of lethal weaponry, its military lacks the ideological conviction that drives soldiers to fight and sacrifice for their beliefs; this is because America’s battles are not noble causes fought to aid the oppressed or establish justice, but instead campaigns of colonialism, plunder, and pillage. The soldiers themselves are aware of this reality—a factor that drives many to suicide. Indeed, numerous suicides have occurred aboard naval vessels deployed across the oceans—incidents so frequent that the U.S. could not conceal them. Consequently, the U.S. military is composed of mercenaries who enlist for the sake of the gains, privileges, and bounties lavished upon them by the government. Yet, all of this evaporates the moment it conflicts with the soldier's instinct for survival; cowardice and the desire to live take precedence over the incentives and inducements promised by their governments and military and political leaders.

American leaders are fully aware of these realities regarding their armies and fleets—forces capable of igniting conflicts yet unable to resolve them in a manner that serves U.S. interests. This realization has compelled them to rely on regional proxies, ordering the formation of a military alliance that allows the U.S. to utilize Muslim soldiers to win its battles and carry out the “dirty work” that its own troops are unable to accomplish. After all, U.S. forces failed to decisively defeat the Mujahideen in Afghanistan over the course of more than twenty years, just as they failed to secure a decisive victory in Iraq after suffering heavy casualties among their own cowardly troops. Consequently, American leaders became convinced that they could not wage battles alone—particularly those requiring ground forces. This shift was evident in the 2012 US defense strategy, adopted under President Barack Obama and Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta, which abandoned the military planning doctrine of two major simultaneous wars. The previous doctrine had posited that the United States must be capable of fighting two large-scale, concurrent regional conflicts—such as one in Europe and another in Asia or the Middle East. Thus, America seeks to utilize trained Muslim troops—specifically from Pakistan, Saudi Arabia, and Turkey—to decisively defeat Iran. It is entirely possible that these three states could launch a ground invasion, supported by US naval and air power, to occupy Iran, topple its regime, and install a replacement that serves their interests—acting without hesitation, just as they mobilized these forces and other proxies and allies in the “crusader coalition” to invade Iraq in 2003.

O Sincere Officers of Pakistan Army! Were you trained in the name of Islam and the defense of Muslim lands—the very foundation upon which your state was established—only to carry out the “dirty work” that the arch-bastion of disbelief, America, and the Jewish entity are unable to perform themselves? Do you accept becoming allies to both those who have incurred the wrath of Allah, the Jews, and those who have gone astray, the Christians? How can you remain silent while your leaders harness you to serve the enemies of Islam and Muslims—foremost among them America? Does the Army Act of 1952 not contain Article 24, which addresses military offenses that “directly or indirectly assists or relieves the enemy”—crimes punishable by death? You must take corrective action before you are thrust into the furnace of a war in which both the killer and the killed end up in the Fire; for the Messenger of Allah (saw) said, «إِذَا التَّقَى الْمُسْلِمَانِ بِسَيْفَيْهِمَا، فَأَلْقَا تِلْ وَالْمَقْتُولُ فِي النَّارِ» “When two Muslims meet with their swords, both the killer and the killed are in the Fire” (Narrated by Al-Bukhari and Muslim).

You must purge your military and political institutions of those who work to advance American colonialist interests in the region. Know that just as the pure blood of our soldiers was shed in American battles in Afghanistan and border regions—and in the colonialist missions they label as “peacekeeping missions” worldwide—your leaders will not hesitate to shed your blood in Iran to serve the interests of their crusader master in Washington. Hasten to overthrow them before it is too late, and give your military support (nussrah) to Hizb ut Tahrir, which will establish the Khilafah (Caliphate) upon the Method of the Prophethood and lead you to cleanse Muslim lands—on land and at sea—of the filth of America, the Jews, and all colonialists. Allah (swt) said, ﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مَا لَكُمْ إِذَا قِيلَ لَكُمْ أَنْفِرُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَنْتُمْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ أَرْضَيْتُمْ بِالْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ فَمَا﴾ “O you who have believed, what is [the matter] with you that, when you are told to go forth in the cause of Allah, you adhere heavily to the earth? Are you satisfied with the life the worldly life compared to the Hereafter; for the enjoyment of the worldly life in the Hereafter is but little.” [TMQ Surah At-Tawbah: 38].
